

OKLAHOMA TECHNOLOGY ASSOCIATION 2018 Technology Leader of the Year Application/Nomination

Purpose of Award: This award is to honor a district technology leader/administrator who exhibits exemplary leadership in the effective use and integration of technology in the teaching and learning process, and technology operations throughout the leader's district.

Criteria: Eligible recipients include site or district technology coordinators, technology directors, lead technology facilitators, and administrators. Nominated technology leaders should support digital age learning, implement technology, and transform the education landscape. Transforming schools into digital age places of learning requires leadership from people who can accept new challenges and embrace new opportunities. Now more than ever, the success of technology integration depends upon leaders who can implement systemic reform in our schools. See all criteria at <https://www.iste.org/standards/for-education-leaders>

Award Winners: OTA will choose one (1) technology leader based on the criteria.

Application/Nomination: Applications/nominations must be received by midnight on Friday, November 9, 2018. All application/nomination materials must be submitted electronically to Kristy Ehlers at confexhibits@gmail.com by the deadline. Incomplete applications/nominations will not be considered. Application/nomination materials may be submitted in PDF and/or JPG formats. Application materials should be labeled and saved by part (A, B, C, etc.).

Award: Award recipients will receive statewide recognition and a plaque.

Questions: Contact Kristy Ehlers, confexhibits@gmail.com if you have questions.
